At least 1,500 farmers affected by last month's heavy rains and flash flood were given food packs last Nov. 3, according to City Agriculturist Diosdado Palacat.

He said the food recipients were farmer-residents of barangays Labuan, Patalon, Sinubong, Talisayan, Pamucutan, La Paz, Tulungatung, Ayala, Maasin and Sinunuc.

Palacat also announced that the Bureau of Fisheries and Aquatic Resources (BFAR) had also turned over farm implements like seaweeds, squid jiggers, life vest, hook and line and gill net for 510 famers.
